Sexo toll here horrible It is for your child to ask you: "Mom, was I born as a product of rape?"

Sarah Wilson was attacked the first time in a playground near her home. She was 11 years old. Another girl, Nadine, 15, approached her to invite her to a party. Once the aggressor was waiting for her, Nadine turned out to be a friend of the aggressor. Sarah was raped by a group of men, some of which were aliens "gut called", they lose interest and courage, so they force them to bring lower younger girls. From there, she was turned into a sexual slave, moving her to different cities in the country, to be raped by multiple men to the same night.

Their modus operandi at the time of capturing their victim, but at the time of the trial, they were not in the slightest remorseful. Quite the opposite, they were hooked and were totally disgusting. In addition, they not exactly defend themselves under the effects of so many narcotics. Sarah Champion was the only congressman to open an investigation into this case, at the end of 2012, and was nicknamed "Rotherham's mole".

How sick does a society have to be to spread itself from these children? What hope is left when defenseless children are despised and humiliated by those who should protect them?

What differentiates it predators from the concubine?

Finally, the investigation of Champion, contradicted by the Child Protection Board, revealed the seriousness of what had happened.

Alexis Jay began his report by saying:

"It is difficult to describe the attrocious nature of the abuse suffered by children. They were raped at a group, victims of trafficking to other towns and cities in England, abducted, beaten and intimidated."

12-year-old girls were threatened with firearms, sprayed with gasoline under the threat of setting them on fire, raped individually and in groups, intoxicated regaty, and forced to witness forced rapes on other girls.

Andrew Norfolk uncovered cases such as a 12-year-old girl, whose parents were threatened with a firearm, and a 15-year-old girl, who was the victim of a cancer whose she realized continued to hand her cane to one of the assailants, called Arshid Hussain, whenever he requested it. The one of the men who raped the girl, attended the mandatory sentencing, with a plaster bandage towards its vagina.

The one of a creature of 14 years, that the police found in a house, bound and drunk, with five men abusing her, after a neighbor alerted the police, when he heard the cries of the girl. The girl was arrested for disorderly conduct and for being drunk. To the men, they were released.

The reason to ignore it and cover it up for being accused of being racist The authorities come to worry that relatives were committed to uncover their branches.

Even today, during the trials of 2019, 2016 and 2017, after discovering the magnitude of the savage way that these beasts have committed, they continued to refer to those condemned with the pathetic euphemistic term "Asians".

The mayor of the town hall of Rotherham, Martin Kimber, resigned, he will do the employment councilor, Roger Stone, being expelled from the Labour Party.

Not so Shaun Wright, Councilor for Children's Services, who resigned from office only where Theresa May herself (Boss, Secretary of State) demanded it, as well as the Labour Party.

Other councilors expelled from office and party were Gerwyndine Russell and Shaukat Ali, since the dropped Jahangir Akhtar.

The cases were not limited only to the town of Rotherham. Little by little the investigations, they have spread to other towns, with the consequent growth of the network and increasing the number of victims. The first time he came to court was in 1995, but the accused was not a pedophile, but a little who tried to escape that abuse suffered by his daughters. In the investigations, testimonies of parents who tried to flee their children appear as were threatened the police with charges against them for "racism".

At the beginning of 1990, several managers of reception centers began to report disappearances of children, which, in the beginning, were attributed to the desire of the centers by last defects. In 1991, 1992 and 1995, reports were presented to the police and the Rotherham Council, where names of the perpetrators were provided, but the police did not take any action, describing the situation. The authorities dismissed the first report and rejected the other two, treating the victims with great indifference.

"I went to the authorities with my parents. I cut and I was questioned by the police. I had the will to work with them. However, at the time of raping the girls, the authorities, they made me feel like I was a racist and like I was the one to be sorry."

It is the testimony of Simon, used as a sex slave since the was 13 years old.

"They specifically told me not to comment on the ethnicity of my rapists, because I was a racist. I felt that I did not an someone excuse not to mention that race."

"My aggressors made one feel that I was the guilty party and they (police and social workers) let that feeling."

"In that moment I thought that possibly the attackers were right, that they did not have the problem and I was."

Simon gave an interview to the tapes Sky Sarah Falder, LC where she explained that the victim, Simon, was the victim for the first time. She explained that the abuse was repeated regularly and she's described an occasion in which, being locked in a property, she was raped by multiple men. After that, her assailants blackmailed her, threatening to let the same to her father if she did not "do what they wanted". Simon, after going to the authorities, who told him "It's your sexual orientation".

Curiously, the police but the children they were given at the time of the complaint, leaving but without evidence for the trial.

When she was 13 years old, she again denounced a rape in a park. The police ignored her again. It was there where the family left the country.

The interviewer confirmed that many families of victims of these aggressions, chose to move abroad, since they were abandoned by the authorities and moving to another city did not help, since these bands had contacted members of other convicted and two cousins of them, Asif Ali and Mohammed Whied, are on this list:

- Sageer Hussain, 30. Sentenced to 19 years.
- Basharat Hussain, 40. He added 7 more years of condemnation for new victims. In total, 32 years.
- Ishtiaq Khaliq, 33. Condemned to 17 years.
- Masoued Malik, 32. Sentenced to 15 years.
- Waleed Ali, 34. Convicted to 13 years.
- Asif Ali, 30. Sentenced to 12 years.
- Naeem Rafiq, 33. Convicted to 8 years.
- Mohammed Whied, 32. Sentenced to 5 years.

Trial anecdotes:

- Sageer Husain was convicted, among other causes, of raping a 13-year-old girl 4 times. During the trial it was shown that the girl's family had reported him to the police, the congressman of his district and the Secretary of State. Nobody helped them. This is the case of Emma, whose testimony she told you before, and is worse than you can imagine. At the trial he said that the first time they abused her, in November 2002, there were 9 men at a time and they took pictures of what they were doing.
- On another occasion, they locked her in a room, while the men waited their turn outside, passing one by one. It was raped multiple times. Even after reporting what happened to the police. They threatened her, at gunpoint, with doing the same to her mother, killing her brother and burning her house.
- She kept the clothes she wore every time she was raped. She took them as proof to the police. Two days later, she received a call from the police station, warning her that they had lost them. The family received compensation for the loss of clothes of € 160. Seeing that nobody helped them, they moved to Spain.

In January 2017, six men were convicted. Three of them, brothers:

- Basharat Dad, 32. Sentenced to 20 years.
- Nasser Dad, 36. Sentenced to 14 years and 6 months.
- Tayab Dad, 34. Condemned to 10 years.
- Mohammed Sadiq, 41. Sentenced to 13 years.
- Matloob Hussain, 42. Sentenced to 13 years.
- Amjad Ali, 36. Sentenced to 11 years.

The Dad brothers kidnapped the little girls when they came to buy in their father's store (they sold fireworks, flyers, firecrackers). Then they took them to the building above (also owned by the father) and there they held them and did what they wanted with them. One of her victims, aged 12, was pregnant. As the rape had been carried out by five men, DNA tests had to be done to find out who the baby's father was.

When the judge finished reading the sentence, two of them shouted "Allahu Akbar".

In November 2017, three men were convicted:

- Sajid Ali, 38. Sentenced to 7 years and 6 months.
- Zaheer Iqbal, 40. Sentenced to 7 years and 6 months.

Regarding the police. There are 53 ongoing investigations against them.

It has been discovered that a police officer had been in contact with one of the assailants. In March 2000, the policeman, together with a taxi driver who would later become a Rotherham councilor, arranged for Arshid Hussain to "loan" them a girl, in exchange for immunity. The same police officer had invited two of the victims out. One of them denounced him in August 2013. Nobody did anything.

That being said, the policeman was hit by a car, killed in January 2015.

It is estimated that these animals managed to bill around € 230,000 a year, exploiting the small ones as sex slaves. For those who want more information about these and other similar cases in the United Kingdom, I recommend Peter McLoughlin's book "Easy Meat".

I attach newspaper headlines referring to this scandal.

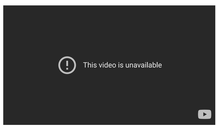
But at last there is hope: the struggle has begun.

A group of German women have created the movement 120 decibels (# 120db).

I attach the video. In the next article, I will explain who the three victims they name are.



Next post will be about what's happening with women in Germany.

It is our duty to spread the truth. If you agree, i invite you to resteem the post. Let's prevent America for what could happen if we don't take a stand against illegal immigration.

This has to be one of the saddest realities of human existence. God have mercy on all of these poor children. Who will stand up? Who will stop looking the other way? Who will give a shit?

As hard as it is to read about this, the world needs to be shaken to their core by this reality and commit to no longer allow it!

At least women in Europe is starting to stand up against this. The video at the end of the post is kinda encouraging. It's not the typical #metoo movement who is doing nothing for the real issues of gender equality. #120db is the real deal.

You need to tune your bot. This post is anything but fake news. In fact this is what those in the UK who are supposed to protect their citizens would say as well.

Europe has no will to govern. They are but collection of merchants whose only concern is collecting their ill gotten gains and could care less about their society falling apart. What can anyone expect from those who would unhesitatingly prostitute their identity for "free trade" deals? All these are consequences of allowing merchants to rise to government and leftist hopsies to tenure at universities.
