INCOMING OVERSIGHT CHAIRMAN ROBERT GARCIA LAUNCHES DOCUMENT PRESERVATION LETTERS ON TRUMP FAMILY CORRUPTION, CORPORATE CORRUPTION, DHS MISCONDUCT, AND EPSTEIN COVER-UP

Washington, D.C. — Today, Rep. Robert Garcia, Ranking Member of the House Committee on Oversight and Government Reform, released document preservation letters laying the groundwork to advance investigations led by Oversight Democrats related to Trump family profiteering that may threaten the public interest, corporate corruption, misconduct at the Department of Homeland Security (DHS), and the ongoing White House cover-up of the Jeffrey Epstein files. These investigations will provide the facts, evidence, and insights necessary to identify gaps in existing law, inform legislative solutions, and advance meaningful reforms that better protect the American people.

"Oversight Democrats are fighting to put an end to this Administration's self-dealing, misconduct, and abuse. These investigations will lay the groundwork for legislation which helps all Americans. This is just the beginning," said Ranking Member Robert Garcia.

Ranking Member Robert Garcia escalated existing investigations initiated by Oversight Democrats this Congress and demanded the preservation of all records, communications, and information pertaining to future congressional probes.

Ranking Member Garcia sent the following 12 document retention notices related to the following individuals surrounding Trump family corruption, corporate corruption, DHS misconduct, and the White House Epstein cover-up:
